

VALUE: That you would know the rush of seeing God

_____.

context:

line by line:

1. Self-centeredness saps _____.

2. I've got the _____.

application:

study questions

Use these questions in your community group time to dig deeper and discover how you can apply today's message to everyday life.

Text: Acts 3:1-16

1. What questions or push back did this week's message raise for you?
2. Read John 1:1-9 through together.
 - a. Imagine you are Peter and John. Going to the Synagogue at this time of day is normal for you, as you've been doing it all of your adult life. What is going through your mind as you think about your faith, how it has changed in Jesus, and what you can do to share it with others?
 - b. What does this story teach us about our feelings of inadequacy when it comes to serving others?
 - c. What does it teach us about what God does when we seek to serve others as he has served us?
 - d. What does this story teach us about God's purpose for us on this earth once we are his followers?
3. Now turn together to Galatians 6:8-9.
 - a. What does it mean to "sow to the Spirit"?
 - b. What makes you "weary in doing good"?
 - c. What do you think Paul is saying we should do about it?
 - d. When to we address being weary in ministry, when we become tired or before?
4. Reread the "Value" on the other side of this sheet.
 - a. Have you experienced that value? If so, when and where?
 - b. How often do you experience it now?
 - c. Is your relationship with Jesus strengthened when you serve another?
5. What are you doing now, or what can you do this week to live out the value of service in your life?
6. Pray for one another and for our church family that we would give ourselves completely to Christ and find ourselves living in a "culture of service" --Where everyone knows the joy of God touching someone "through me."